National Old-Time Banjo Champion

Howard Wallace, shown above, from Cincinatti, Ohio was named National Old-Time Banjo Champion for solo picking at the National Banjo Festival held in Appomattox last week end.

He began playing banjo at the age of 8 and played until he was 19. He stopped playing when he married but in 1965 after he and Mrs. Wallace had raised their four children, she gave him a banjo and that got him started playing again.

Last year he won Upper Cumberland Championship in Tennessee and also won three 1st place trophies in Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee.

Shown above, Wallace is holding the gold banjo trophy he won in Appomattox and tells us he will receive a cash prize based on gate receipts. An official member of the Virginia State Music Association, he plans to come back next year, but can't compete again as he is now holder of the championship title.

Wallace played on the banjo shown above that he styled and handmade. It is a beautiful instrument with a hand carved eagle in curly maple wood on the back. It took him 13 months to make this banjo, he has made four in all and he keeps all the ones he makes.

COUNCIL APPROVES REGULATIONS FOR TOWN BALLPARK USE

The angle parking along these two street creates a safety hazard and council voted to eliminate the angle parking on these streets by painting a traveiway edgeline in order that parallel parking can be instituted.

In other business, council authorized the town manager, Bill Slagle, to sign documents and to take discretionary action regarding revenue sharing money in order to comply with the regulations set forth.

The Revenue Sharing Funds allocated for the first two quarters of 1973 will be used for improvement to the water system in the Town of Appomattox.

Members of council voted to request that the dog quarantine be extended.

Street allotments for the Virginia Department of Highways fiscal year 1973-74 was worked up at this meeting and a resolution was offered and passed by council and will be presented to the Department of Highways.

It was reported to council that the Highway Department had indicated that if council wanted a sidewalk on the in-Town portion of the Evergreen Avenue project, the department would approve it if council would pay 50% of the cost of materials. After discussion, council approved a motion to request sidewalks on the Evergreen Avenue project.

Town Manager, Bill Slagle, advised the council that it would either apply for an extension of the southern Building Code for two years or go with the uniform Statewide Building Code. Council expressed a desire to proceed with the implementation of the new Statewide Building Code and suggested that Slagle attend the training session to be held regarding this matter.

Veterans Administration News

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative quiries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q – Is the Veterans Administration cutting back the number of people operating its hospitals?

A – On the contrary, by the end of fiscal year 1973 (June 30), VA will have increased personnel in its hospital and medical care program to a record 154,000 – nearly 10,000 more than last fiscal year, and 20,000 above the fiscal year 1971 level.

Q – Can a veteran get VA help in dealing with his family and job problems even though he isn't sick?

A – Yes. Some of VA's veterans assistance centers are staffed with social workers (now called community service specialists) to help meet the veteran's total counseling needs. Specialists are on duty in Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit and other principal cities, and VA plans eventually to place them in all centers.

Q – Are husbands of female veterans eligible for the same Veterans Administration benefits as widows of male veterans?

A – Yes. Under PL 92-540 (Oct. 24, 1972), the term "wife," for purposes of benefits, includes the husband of a female veteran and "widow" includes the widower of a female veteran.
